San Antonio Police Officers Arrested

On Friday, August 18th, detectives with the San Antonio Police Department's Intelligence Unit arrested two San Antonio Police Officers. 26-year-old Officer Carlos Salazar and 27-year-old Officer Ildebrando Salazar, Jr., were apprehended on an arrest warrant for Theft $50 – 500, a Class B misdemeanor. If convicted, they each face a penalty of 180 days in jail and/or a fine of up to $2,000.

Both officers have been with the department for 2 years and will be placed on administrative duty pending the outcome of this investigation.

The theft stems from an investigation conducted by the Bexar County Sheriff's Office and any questions related to this can be directed to the Criminal Investigations Division of the Sheriff's Office at 335-6070.
